

Code of Conduct

Code of Conduct for Students

❖ Introduction:

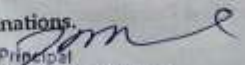

RRMCLPCC college is keen to fostering a culture that reflects excellence, intellectual openness, inclusivity, justice, integrity, respect and impartiality. The institution expects students to represent these values in their daily actions, decisions, and interactions. The Code of Conduct serves to establish the necessary boundaries for maintaining this standard. While on campus, students remain subject to the laws of the land, and any violations of these laws may also be considered breaches of the Code. All students are expected to obey to the Code of Conduct.

❖ Responsibilities of Students:

1. Students are expected to read, understand, and comply with the institute's policies, taking full responsibility for their actions.
2. Students shall adhere to the institute's commitment to fostering a community that values and supports diversity in all forms, including gender, caste, creed, religion, region, nationality, educational background, talent, skill, and experience.
3. Students should maintain academic integrity and honesty in all their academic work and activities.
4. Shall contribute to a positive, respectful, and inclusive learning environment.
5. Shall uphold the reputation of the institution by behaving responsibly both on and off campus.
6. Students are encouraged to actively participate in institution events, programs, and extracurricular activities that promote personal and academic growth.
7. Shall respect the rights and dignity of fellow students, faculty, and staff.
8. Students are expected to use institute resources responsibly and avoid any behaviour that may damage property or harm the community.
