2.2.1. The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

Response:

The College has a unique place in the North Gujarat Environment. Most of the people living around the cities are SC, ST, OBC and Minorities.

The students' performances are observed and evaluated through internal and external Examinations and Sometime departments are arranged unit-wise test. Based on these indicators, the educational needs of the advanced and slow learners are pinpointed. But during the academic year 2020-21, due to the global pandemic Covid-19 the teaching / learning and assessment of the students in offline mode was difficult. Task To solve this critical situation, on 22nd Jun., 2021 the college have organized a Webinar on "Guidance for online Teaching / Learning to B.Sc. & B.Com. Students". Guidance for "Online Courses & Study Materials as well as preparation of exam during the vacation" was given on Radiopalanpur 90.4FM to all the students. Following this, online teaching through You tube channel, MS team, Webex App was started in respective departments. Moreover, by strictly following the SOP protocol the experimental work in different laboratories were performed successfully. Internal examinations through MCQs pattern for odd & even semesters were arranged online using the MCQ Test software provided by NexGen Company.

The slow learners were also given guidance on how to appear in MCQ Exam and 3 to 4 times MCQ based series of exam,was conducted through Google form so that Students can improve their results.
