

REPORT OF WORKSHOP ON SCIENTIFIC POT CULTURE (SPC-2023)

Green Audit Committee organized one day workshop on “Scientific Pot Culture (SPC)-2023” at college. Theory part was explained at Botany laboratory and hands on training session was there at Botanical Garden of the college. The main objective of the program was, to aware the participants regarding Scientific Pot Culture and Media preparation for SPC. Sharp at 1:30PM inaugural function was started with Prayer by Ty Botany students with Ms. Shweta Raval. Dr. G.D Acharya sir and Dr. Anil Parmar were the chief guests of the workshop. Dr. Haresh Gondaliya and Dr. Mukesh Patel welcome the guests by floral bookey. Dr Acharya sir and Dr Anil Sir blessed us with warm words. The technical session was started by explanation of demonstration of Scientific Pot Culture by Dr. Dhruv Pandya and Dr. Haresh Gondaliya.

Inaugural Function

Technical Session

After technical session and demonstration all the participants with teaching and non-teaching staff members of the department went there at Botanical Garden for Hands on Training. Under the guidance of Dr. Mukesh Patel, Dr. Dhruv Pandya and Dr. Haresh Gondaliya students have successfully completed scientific pot culture. More than 130 students actively participated in this workshop.

In the valedictory session Dr. Shyamal sir from the management team was present as chief guest who blessed the students with inspirational words. After his blessings many of the students had feedback from them side regarding the workshop and green audit committee. The valedictory session was followed by National Anthem.

Team of the Workshop